Travel & Medical Evacuation Insurance

With well over 30 years of experience sending anglers to worldwide destinations, we believe travel insurance is very important and merits careful review and consideration. Most of the destinations we represent require a substantial deposit and prepayment well before departure. All trip payments sent to The Fly Shop® are forwarded to the outfitter, usually within one working week. Many of these destinations have a short season with a strict “no-refunds” cancellation policy, regardless of the circumstances, unless a replacement is found. Travel insurance may be the only way by which The Fly Shop® will be able to assist you with compensation for a canceled trip.

The Fly Shop® is not in the insurance business, however after much research and consideration we recommend Global Rescue with IMG Signature Travel Insurance or Redpoint Insurance who offers three options.

GLOBAL  rescue | 800.381.9754 | INTL. +1.617.459.4200
www.globalrescue.com/theflyshop

For close to two decades, Global Rescue has provided unparalleled response and evacuation services to travelers around the world. From minor medical issues to life-threatening situations, Global Rescue’s critical services have been there when they were needed most. Travelers have trusted Global Rescue’s medical and security travel services since 2004, and now you can secure the value of your entire trip with Global Rescue’s Signature Travel Insurance. Global Rescue and IMG have created one of the industry’s most complete travel insurance products, integrating Global Rescue’s advisory and evacuation services with the financial protection of a comprehensive travel insurance program.

If your destination requires medical insurance with comprehensive coverage for COVID-19, please contact Dan Chomko at Global Rescue at dchomko@globalrescue.com for a quote for $100,000 worth of coverage; it is very reasonable $100 - $200.
